

LITHUANIAN
COURTS
The Supreme Administrative
Court of Lithuania

LITHUANIAN
COURTS
The Supreme
Court of Lithuania

AI and Technologies in Courts

Generated by AI

International conference

22 October 2024

Zoom

Programme

Times in UTC+2 /CEST (Brussels time)

9.30-10.30 Welcome and Keynote Addresses

Welcome and Introduction

Dr Monika Zalnieriute (Lithuanian Centre for Social Sciences, Lithuania)

Dr Agne Limante (Lithuanian Centre for Social Sciences, Lithuania)

A/Prof Danguole Bublione (President of the Supreme Court of Lithuania, Vilnius University, Lithuania)

Keynote Address AI and Courts: Legal Challenges and Opportunities

Prof Tania Sourdin (University of Newcastle, Australia)

A/Prof Brian Barry (Trinity College Dublin, Ireland)

Keynote Address Criminal Courts and AI: On the Role and Use of Algorithms at Sentencing

Prof Jesper Ryberg (Roskilde University, Denmark)

Chair: Dr Monika Zalnieriute

10.30-11.30 Panel 1: Judicial Values

Judicial Competence and AI

Dr Jessica Kerr (University of Western Australia, Australia)

AI and the Judicial Duty to State Reasons

Ms Victoria Hendricxs (KU Leuven, Belgium)

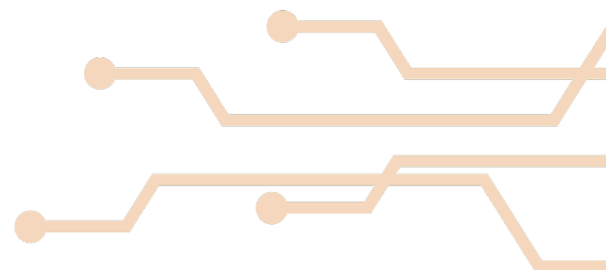

Judicial Independence: Impact of AI on Courts

Prof Migle Laukyte (University of Pompeu Fabra, Spain)

Judicial AI and EU AI Act

Dr Giulia Gentile (University of Essex, UK)

Chair: Ms Monika Sukyte

11.30 -12.30 Panel 2: Legal Values, Courts and AI

Judicial Transparency and AI

Dr Monika Zalnieriute (Lithuanian Centre for Social Sciences, Lithuania)

AI in the European Courts of Human Rights

Dr Helga Molbaek-Steensig (European University Institute, Italy)

AI and the Efficiency of Courts

Dr Luisa Hedler (Copenhagen Business School, Denmark)

Due Process and AI in Courts: Opportunities, Risks and Challenges

Mr Shehabeldine Ismail (International Dispute Resolution Lawyer, Young ICCA Regional Representative for Africa, Egypt)

Chair: Dr Monika Zalnieriute

12.30-13.15 Lunch Break

13.15-14.15 Panel 3: Jurisdictional Perspectives

AI and Courts in Belgium and the Netherlands

Dr Dory Reiling (Retired Judge, the Netherlands)

Dr Genevieve Vanderstichele (KU Leuven, Belgium)

AI and Courts in Eastern Europe: Lithuania & Poland

Dr Agne Limante (Lithuanian Centre for Social Science, Lithuania)

Dr Maria Dymitruk (University of Wroclaw, Poland)

AI and Courts in Central Europe: Croatia and Slovenia

Prof Ivana Kunda (Rijeka University, Croatia)

Dr Denis Baghrizabehi (University of Maribor, Slovenia)

Emerging Trends in AI and Judicial Process in South Africa

Prof Sizwe Snail Ka Mtuze (South African High Court, Nelson Mandela University, South Africa)

AI in the Nigerian Court System: Challenges and Prospects

Dr Izuoma Egeruoh-Adindu (Nigerian Institute of Advanced Legal Studies and University of Jos, Nigeria)

Chair: Dr Agne Limante

14.15-14.30 Break

14.30-15.30 Panel 4: Concepts & Jurisdictions

AI in the Judiciary: A Threat to the Rule of Law?

A/Prof Nathalie Smuha (KU Leuven, Belgium)

Courts and AI: Comparative US and EU Perspective

Prof Paul De Hert (VUB Brussels, University of Tilburg, Belgium)

Dr Georgios Bouchagiar (VUB Brussels, Belgium)

AI and Courts: An International Perspective

Prof Veronika Fikfak (University College London, UK)

Prof Laurence Helfer (Duke University, USA)

Courts and AI in USA

Prof Kevin Tobia (Georgetown University, USA)

Chair: Dr Monika Zalnieriute

15.30-15.45 Break

15.45-16.45 Panel 5: AI and Courts in Americas

AI and Courts in Mexico

Mr Etienne Luquet Farias (Bitso, Mexico)

AI and Courts in Canada

A/Prof Jennifer Raso (McGill University, Canada)

Public Perceptions of Judicial Use of AI: A Legal & Psychological Perspective

A/Prof Roe Sarel (University of Hamburg, Germany)

Chair: Dr Agne Limante

16.45 Closing Remarks

The project 'Artificial Intelligence in Courts: Challenges and Opportunities' (TeismAI), has received funding from the Research Council of Lithuania (LMTLT), agreement number S-MIP-23-73.
<https://teise.org/en/projektai/teismai/>

